

THE PATEA MAIL.

We are sorry to learn that Mr Delamore lost a fine draught horse on Thursday last, under very peculiar circumstances. He was working on the Unthanks Road, and in crossing the new bridge, the leading horse, who seemed rather frightened, fell down dead. Mr Delamore attributes it to nothing but fright, as the horse appeared perfectly well in the morning.